DEDICATION

DEDICATION

R. A. GRAY, PRINCIPAL

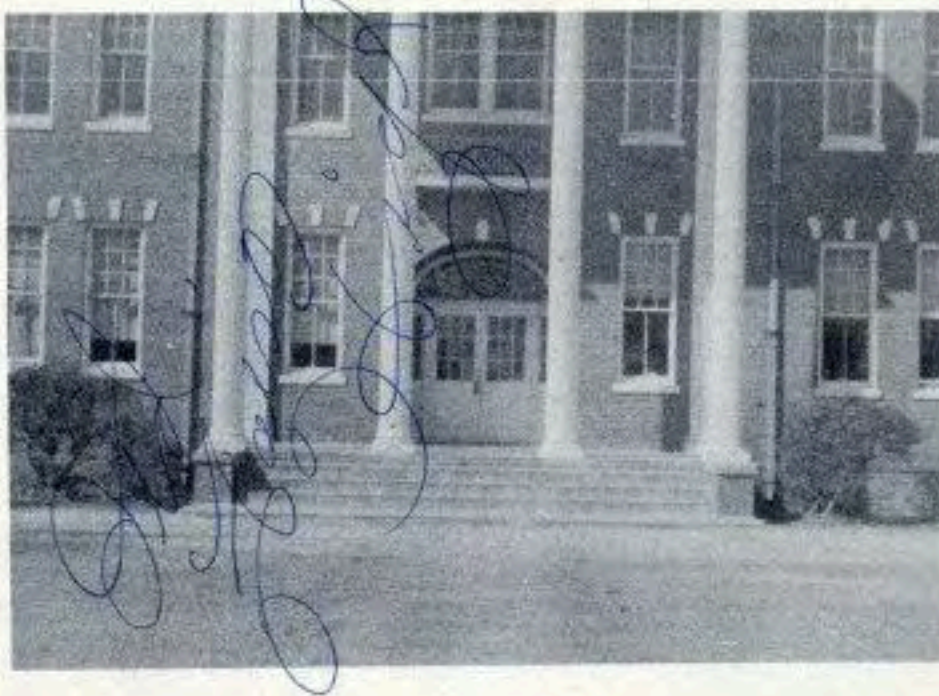

Dedication

For the high ideals of character and conduct, both by precept and example, he has constantly set before us; for the untiring energy he has expended to promote every phase of the school program; for the excellent sportsmanship he has practiced and encouraged other to practice; for his deep understanding of young people and their problems; for his kindness toward and patience with us at all times; for his smile that has tempered his firmness and taken the sting out of his punishment; for all these things and more, we are deeply appreciative of our principal, and do with lasting love and esteem, hereby dedicate this 1953-1954 volume of the Reflector to him.

Robert Alton Gray

Class History

One fall morning in the year of 1942, Mrs. Eva W. Shutt stood before a class of thirty-five anxious children. Of that group there are only four in the present Senior Class. They are Julia Taylor, Gwen Hines, Dickie Bailey, and Dennis Price. Our losses have been many so we'll only mention our gains. In the first grade we gained Margaret Swinson, in the third grade we gained Lola Stewart and Tommy Cottle. Shirley Bland came to us in the fourth, Carolyn Wilson and Morton Hollingsworth in the fifth, Clarence Miller and Bailey Britt in the seventh, and Evelyn Strickland joined us in the eighth.

There is not much to say about our grammar years. We did enjoy a splendid trip to Raleigh in the seventh grade, but otherwise our only entertainment was parties given us by our grade mothers.

Our high school years have been packed with fun and also studying. With Miss Yvonne Waters as home room teacher we enjoyed many parties during our Freshman year. During the first semester of our Sophomore year we sold magazines and made money which we used to go see the Christmas Program at the Planetarium in Chapel Hill. Mrs. Vivean C. Finch was our home room teacher. With Mrs. Mack Broadhurst as home room teacher, our Junior year was topped by the banquet we gave the Seniors. It was carried out in the Senior Class colors, blue and yellow, and the setting was a garden scene. We also enjoyed presenting the Junior Play, "Lights Out."

Now we are in our Senior year. We have already presented our Senior Play, "Aunt Samantha Rules the Roost," which was so good, that by popular request, we gave a repeat performance. Now our thoughts and activities are centered around an impending trip to Washington in the spring, followed by the fulfillment of a long-desired goal, graduation. As graduation time draws nearer, not one of us is completely sure that a diploma will fill the void that leaving school will surely bring. Next year will be different. Where everyone will be, is a big question. In fact, it is so big, I'll not attempt to answer it, but will leave it instead to the class prophet. No matter what the future may hold for us, the past twelve years have been filled with much enjoyment.

Historian
Margaret Swinson

Class Prophecy 1954

Julia Taylor went to Duke, a lady doctor for to be
But she married one instead, and she's now a Mrs. M. D.

Carolyn Wilson to the capital of our nation has migrated,
Not alone, of course you've guessed it, ask H. M. with whom she's mated.

Margaret Swinson and her husband live near Faison, just a mile
On their model farm and dairy, those two really live in style.

Gwen's praises as a stewardess, the air line companies sing,
For her a trip to gay Pa-ree is just a normal thing.

Shirley Bland in Radio City of the public is the pet
You should see her when she dances, she's won fame as a Rockette.

Poor old Lola, to darkest Africa, to bring light that was her wish
But the cannibals thought otherwise, I'm sure she made a tasty dish.

Evelyn Strickland to the army, naturally just gravitated
In Faison School she learned her bossing, as a general now she's rated.

As a lawyer Dickey Bailey brought his Alma Mater fame
He now resides in Washington, for Chief Justice he became.

Morton Hollingsworth cast from him every thought of home and duty
In tropic isles he's now a Tarzan, we admire his manly beauty.

Tommy Cottle's too well known to need an introduction here
On NBC we hear him nightly, a tobacco auctioneer.

Clarence Miller's charm and S. A. our class never underrated
He's lived up to expectations, for stardom soon we hear he's slated.

And there never has been anyone who quite like Dennis Price could croon
When Dennis is the Don Pasquale all the bobby soxers swoon.

Bailey Britt, you'd never guess it, is the scholar of the crowd
Illustrious president of Baylor, Faison School can well be proud.

Class Will

Last Will and Testament
State of North Carolina
County of Duplin
Township of Faison

We, the Senior Class of 1954, being of sound body and mind, bequeath the following items, some of an abstract and others of a material nature, trusting that they may be of some value to the recipients, in this, our last will and testament, on this, the twelfth day of May, 1954.

Article I

SECTION I: To the faculty we leave our hope that they have as much co-operation to give in the years to come as they have given us in the past years.

Article II

SECTION I: To our parents we leave our deepest appreciation for the things they have done for us and for sending us through.

Article III

SECTION I: To the Seniors of '55 we leave our fondest hope that they get out as easy as we did.

Article IV

SECTION I: I, Gwen Hines, leave my ability to boss to Eva Uptegrove, and my bus to Anne Mosely Bowden.

SECTION II: I, Julia Taylor, leave my school bus to Ben Parks, and my ability to aggravate Mr. Murray to Shirley Smith.

SECTION III: I, Evelyn Strickland, leave my ability to cut stencils to Eleanor Bowden, and my brain (?) to Slick Cottle.

SECTION IV: I, Margaret Swinson, leave my excess height to Rex Best, and my second year French book to Anne Bowden. I am afraid she'll need it.

SECTION V: I, Carolyn Wilson, leave my job as Mr. Minor's secretary to Mamie King, and my ability to skip class to James Robert Cooper.

SECTION VI: I, Shirley Bland, leave my smile to Rose Lindsay, and my love of Mt. Olive boys to Ann Best.

SECTION VII: I, Tommy Cottle, leave my good looks to J. C. Bell, and my center spot on the team to Larry Bailey.

SECTION VIII: I, Morton Hollingsworth, leave my ability to date Lila Bell to Tommy Avent, and my place on the team to Nelson Hobbs.

SECTION IX: I, Lola Stewart, leave my ability to get to class on time to Mr. Gray, and my skin and bones to Shirley Smith.

SECTION X: I, Clarence Miller, leave my ability to "snow" girls to J. C. Bell, and my position on the team to Slick Cottle.

SECTION XI: I, Bailey Britt, leave my job as bell ringer to Bobby Miller, and my ability to type to Nelson Hobbs.

SECTION XII: I, Dennis Price, bequeath my love for classical music to Anne Bowden, and my ability to ask stupid questions to James Robert Cooper.

SECTION XIII: I, Dickey Bailey, leave my curly hair and love of all women to Charles Miller, and my ability to argue to Tad Cates.

Your Grandmother's Pickles Were Good

but your grandmother only made once a year. We have done it every day for 51 years... That is why we say pickle making is an art with us. We have assembled cucumbers grown on southern farms... flavored them with herbs and spices from the Far East and tempered them with vinegar and sugar... and what you get is grandmother's old-fashioned, earthen crock, crunchy crispness, with a delicate flavor like a haunting perfume, all tempered to your taste... We didn't find that crunchy goodness in a day or a year... We have strived every day for 51 years to make the fine pickles you get today under the CATES label.
