Billy Lane's Best

Dear Billy,
 You have made my dream
 more worthwhile
 you are truly one to live a life. Happy. Love
 I love you
 I love you

Foreword

As we step forth into an atomic age, we are treating ourselves to the indulgence of a backward look at the peacefulness of the Old South. We are proud of our Southern heritage and we love the Old South for its courage, chivalry, hospitality and truth. We realize that these things are behind us, but still a part of us as we go out into the fast moving world. Words fail to convey how much we appreciate the training that we have received through our school. Now, with the guidance of God and this knowledge to back us, we set forth with determination and zeal.

Dedication

Gifted with an unlimited capacity of understanding and Christian leadership, she has become a symbol to her students of guidance and inspiration. For being her kind and cheerful self, we, the Senior Class of 1957, dedicate this second edition of Rebels, to Mrs. Robert R. Martin.

CLASS HISTORY

In 1952 a long awaited day arrived. That day a group of sixty-five self-sufficient students entered high school, uncertain of the numerous activities in store for them. Thirty seven of these students entered Calypso and twenty-eight entered Faison High School.

That year the Freshman Class of Faison elected the following as their leaders: Carol Anne King, President; Rose Lindsay, Vice-President; Betty Tucker, Secretary; and Tad Cates, Treasurer. A few members of the class had the privilege of going on the trip to Washington with the Seniors and other students of the high school. This was the biggest event of their year. There were parties and other class activities which kept them busily engaged.

The Calypso Freshman Class elected as their class officers, Betty Best, President; Betty Jean King, Vice-President; Shirley Cashwell, Secretary; and L. S. Guy, Treasurer. The highlight of the year for this class was their trip to Raleigh and Chapel Hill. There were various activities and special occasions which added even more to the buzzing activity of their freshman year.

There were several students from each school who distinguished themselves in sports. On the basketball teams were Betty Best, Annelle Grady, Norma Rush, Shirley Hollomon, Melba Warren, Carol Anne King, Rose Lindsay, L. S. Guy, Charles Byrd, Jimmy Swinson and Jerry Lee Swinson.

The Sophomore Class of Calypso began an active year with the organization of their Biology Club. Projects that were completed in the club brought recognition to the class. Betty Jean King and Betty Lou Holland won first place in the District and third place in State Forestry and Ornithology Contest. Charles Byrd, Nancy Roberts, and Brownie Southerland's exhibit won second place in the District Science Fair and was entered in the State Fair. The officers for the class were Jerry Lee Swinson, President; Norma Pridgen, Vice-President; Betty Lou Holland, Secretary; and Sandra Grice, Treasurer. Their outside activities consisted of picnics and parties.

The Faison Sophomores began an enjoyable year, too. The reins of their class fell into the hands of Robert Jennette, President; Rose Lindsay, Vice-President; Tad Cates, Secretary; and Alton Williamson, Treasurer. The many parties they attended were enjoyed immensely by all.

The same students excelled in sports, and many others made a place for themselves on the teams.

Our Junior year brought us together in the new North Duplin High School. Carol Anne King, L. S. Guy, Melba Warren, and Betty Best were chosen to serve as class officers. We sponsored a barbecue and had many other campaigns to raise money for the outstanding event of the year, the Junior-Senior Banquet. This occasion will live in our memories for years to come. One of our class mates, Charles Byrd, was chosen President of the Duplin-Pender F.F.A. Federation and also was winner of the speaking contest.

We're now in the midst of our most memorable year. Rose Lindsay is our class President, Jerry Lee Swinson, Vice-President; Tad Cates, Secretary; and Norma Pridgen, Treasurer. To raise money for our class trip we conducted a Magazine Contest which was very successful. As the year advances, we realize now how much fun we have had and what tender memories we will have of our high school days. We are especially grateful to Mr. Grubbs, Mrs. Martin, Mr. Hurdle and all our Faculty for their repeated efforts in helping us.

CLASS OF '57

This friendly class of '57 is leaving North Duplin High.
 We will not go with a tear in the eye but with a happy sigh,
 For the time we have spent here was carefree and glad;
 There's not a thing in our mem'ry of school that is sad.
 We've loved you, our school days, but now we must leave.
 Then let us be happy; let us not grieve.
 In our memory we'll cherish each precious thought ...
 Of our friends, and of fun, and the knowledge we sought.
 We'll remember the clang of the period bell;
 The whispered secret we pledged we'd not tell;
 The noisy typewriters that clicked on like mad;
 The after-school cokes with the schoolmates we've had.
 And the football games, what a lot of fun ...
 The ones that we lost, and the ones that we won.
 Now stop all that crying; you'll make your eyes red.
 Dry your tears quickly; we must look ahead,
 For we owe a debt to the teachers sincere,
 Who have helped make our paths both brighter and clear.
 To God and our parents we owe a debt, too,
 We shall strive to repay them all our lives thru.

SHIRLEY HOLLOMON, Poet

SCHOOL SONG

There is no school like North Duplin,
 Dear old North Duplin High,
 Where the girls are the sweetest;
 The boys are the neatest,
 Her honor we all hold high.
 There is no school like North Duplin,
 Green and white we bear.
 We'll all stick together
 Through all kinds of weather
 In Dear Old North Duplin High.

There is no team like the Rebels,
 Hurrah, for green and white!
 We've all got the spirit;
 So come on, get with it,
 And fight with all your might.
 There is no team like the Rebels,
 Tho' odds be great or small.
 The team will endeavor
 To pull all together,
 And we'll win over all.

CLASS PROPHECY

One afternoon as I was visiting a plantation in the South, I began to wonder about the future of my classmates, the Senior Class of 1957, and about the different paths they would choose to travel during the next ten years. As I sat on the veranda of this colonial home, I started to day-dream, but I could not capture an inkling of the future. Then I had a brain storm. I thought of Mammy Mandola, an old darky whose mother had taught her to read fortunes in coffee grounds. I ran from the veranda to her tiny hut where she sat in her comfortable rocking chair, singing. I asked her if she could tell me the fortunes of my classmates. She consented, and I fetched her coffee cup for her.

She looked into the cup and began to murmur. "Remember the editor of the 1957 Rebels, a yearbook based on the Old South?"

"Yes, Betty Best."

"Well, she, after majoring in journalism at Wake Forest, will become the vice-president of the Hunter Publishing Company."

Mammy Mandola's eyes started to shine when she announced that L. S. Guy would be chief-of-staff of the Guy Clinic in Calypso with Eleanor Swinson, Nancy Sue Roberts, and Ellen Tadlock as his nurses and Annelle Grady, his x-ray technician.

Then Mammy shook her coffee cup and saw sports galore with Charles Byrd as a fullback for the Washington Red Skins, Alvin Deaver as first baseman for the Brooklyn Dodgers, Harold Kennedy as a hot rod driver in Minnesota, and Shirley Hollomon as the athletic director at Woman's College in Greensboro.

Mammy's eyes grew big as she muttered something about a bird. Then I understood that she meant Jerry Lee Swinson and Betty Jean King would be working as pilot and stewardess on a big airplane.

Mammy began to hum and, peering into her coffee cup, saw Rose Lindsay playing the piano in Carnegie Hall and Norma Pridgen as the Duplin County Music Supervisor.

Suddenly, Mammy put her hands over her ears as if to shut out an awful noise. Then I understood that it was H. R. Malpass's recording of his latest song.

Mammy became almost hysterical as she reported that some one who had some knowledge was appearing. The next fortunes were those of Ann Douglas Davis, who holds the office of principal at the Calypso Grammar School; Clara Lee Davis, who teaches the first grade at Faison; and Carol Anne King, who had taken over the commercial department at North Duplin High School.

Then a newspaper appeared in the coffee grounds and Mammy read the headlines. "Oil discovered on Texas Ranch, owned by Thomas Hill", "Tad Cates, famous bridge constructor, is making a tour of Europe", "Safe-Driving medal awarded to Melvin Summerlin, Grey Hound bus driver", and "Robert Jennette, famous New York lawyer, wins case." Her eye caught the advertisements, and there were ads for the Kornegay-Jernigan Furniture Store in Warsaw and the Pate-McArthur Beauty Salon in Goldsboro. In the gossip column written by Shirley Turner were articles about Gwen Jackson, a member of the panel of "I've Got A Question," and Virginia Kennedy, who dances on "Three For The Money." The accompanying pictures of them were made by Hilda Best.

Mammy smiled as she read these fortunes. Melba Warren was perfectly content rearing little Coast Guard cadets; Norma Brock was trying to make little ladies of her mischievous twin daughters, and Jane Brock was busy with her nursery school.

"Well, praise de Lawd, here comes some good ole chu'ch wu'kers," exclaimed Mammy. Her grounds read that Betty Lou Holland would be an Educational Director of Pullen Memorial Baptist Church in Raleigh and Geraldine Daniels would be a young people's counselor in Raleigh, also.

Then Mammy's face grew grave as she announced that Darnell Gwaltney is a mortician in Goldsboro and that Bobby Miller is a taster in a distillery in LaGrange.

"Ann Sutton is famous for her southern cooking in a New York hotel of which Joe Holland is the manager," read Mammy.

By this time it was getting late and Mammy could see only one more fortune. I realized I was the fortieth member of my class and, afraid of the worst, I spilled the coffee grounds on Mammy's red checked table cloth.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

State of North Carolina
County of Duplin
Townships of Faison and Wolfsrape

We, the Senior Class of North Duplin High School in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Seven, being of sound mind and realizing that our impending departure from this school is close at hand, do hereby declare and make this our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To our faculty we give our appreciation for the opportunity of sitting at their feet and partaking of their inexhaustible store of knowledge.

ARTICLE II

To the underclassmen we leave the anticipation of becoming part of a great high school.

ARTICLE III

To our parents we leave our love and admiration for their loyalty.

ARTICLE IV

- I, Betty Best, leave to my sister Marie, my ability to attract boys.
- I, Hilda Best, leave my retiring ways to Jo Anne Dail.
- I, Jane Brock, leave my blonde tresses to Sue Jennette.
- I, Norma R. Brock, leave my ability to keep a husband at home to Yvonne Johnson Tillman.
- I, Charles Byrd, leave my voice and build to Allen "Squeaky" Kornegay.
- I, Tad Cates, leave my height to James Booth.
- I, Geraldine Daniels, leave my ability to tell jokes to Annette Davis.
- I, Ann Douglas Davis, leave my position in the office of answering phone calls for Faye Miller to Faye Miller.
- I, Clara Lee Davis, leave my position as librarian to Helen Thompson.
- I, Alvin Deaver, leave my position as guard on the football squad to Joseph Foss.
- I, Annelle Grady, leave my ability for acting to Lynette Mazingo.
- I, Sandra Grice, leave my brain to Gail Jackson.
- I, L. S. Guy, leave my "Mr. America" legs to Ned Cottle.
- I, Darnell Gwaltney, leave my tardiness record to Randy Rouse.
- I, Thomas Hill, leave my wolfish ways to Jack Ivey.
- I, Betty Lou Holland, leave my ability to keep secrets to Susan Clifton.
- I, Joe Holland, leave my love for hotels to Kenneth Mazingo.
- I, Shirley Hollomon, "don't leave nothing to nobody cause I need everything I got."
- I, Gwen Jackson, leave my innocent ways to Barbara Anne Ellis.
- I, Robert Jennette, leave North Duplin for Good.
- I, Glenn Jernigan, leave my love for basketball to Jack Precythe.
- I, Harold Kennedy, leave my football suit to John Clifton.
- I, Virginia Kennedy, leave my love for Warsaw to Janice Stewart.
- I, Carol Anne King, leave my restlessness to Nancy Clifton.
- I, Betty Jean King, leave my silly giggles to Ellen Pate.
- I, Sam Kornegay, leave my love for Ford's to Glenn Cashwell.
- I, Rose Lindsay, leave my athletic ability to Sybil McCullen.
- I, Hilda McArthur, leave my quietness to Alma Jo McCullen.
- I, Bobby Miller, leave my love for "Rock and Roll" to Willis Weeks.
- I, Lois Pate, leave my ability to concentrate to Glenn Rivenbark.
- I, Norma Pridgen, leave my musical ability to Jimmy Tadlock.
- I, Nancy Roberts, leave my position as guard on the basketball team to Nancy Pridgen.
- I, Brownie Southerland, leave my knack for science to Jimmy Miller.
- I, Melvin Summerlin, leave my school bus to Robert Uptegrove.
- I, Ann Sutton, leave my love of Piney Grove boys to my sister Frances.
- I, Eleanor Swinson, leave my love for Bert to no one.
- I, Jimmy Swinson, leave my love for the Dodgers to Kaye Grice.
- I, Jerry Swinson, leave Peggy to walk alone down the halls.
- I, Ellen Tadlock, leave my love for the skating rink to Eudine Rouse.
- I, Shirley Turner, leave my attraction for curb hops to Evelyn Cook.
- I, Melba Warren, leave anything I forgot to Berta Stroud.
- I, H. R. Malpass, leave everything, I'm in such a hurry to get out.
