

THE REBEL

1961

"Is it all right if we go?"...

Big game tonight!...

An "A" for effort?...

To you . . .

who led the way for four years as our class advisor, helpmate, and friend, with understanding and unfaltering faith, we, the Senior Class of North Duplin High School, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-One, as an expression of our gratitude and love, wish to dedicate this edition of THE REBEL to MRS. J. FRANK OLIVER.

"Because of your strong faith I kept the track
Whose sharp-set stones my strength had well-nigh spent.
I could not meet your eyes if I turned back
So on I went." . . .

In Appreciation

For all he has done for our class in the past two years, we wish to express our gratitude to Mr. L. M. Hart.

For his leadership:

"I will not follow where the path may lead, but I will go where there is no path, and I will leave a trail."

For his liberality:

"To give is to live. To deny is to die."

For his patience:

"From childhood's little troubles to the martyr's sufferings, patience is the grace of God, whereby we endure evil for the love of God."

For all these things and many more, we thank him from the bottom of our hearts.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

... "May the youth of this community for generations to come gather in this place to receive instruction in knowledge and training in virtue. May they find here every condition necessary to a true and enlightened education.

Especially, may their teachers be examples of excellence in scholarship and character, seekers after goodness and truth, lovers of children, enthusiasts and adepts in the finest of all arts, the development and inspiration of human souls. "...

Foreign Language, Math

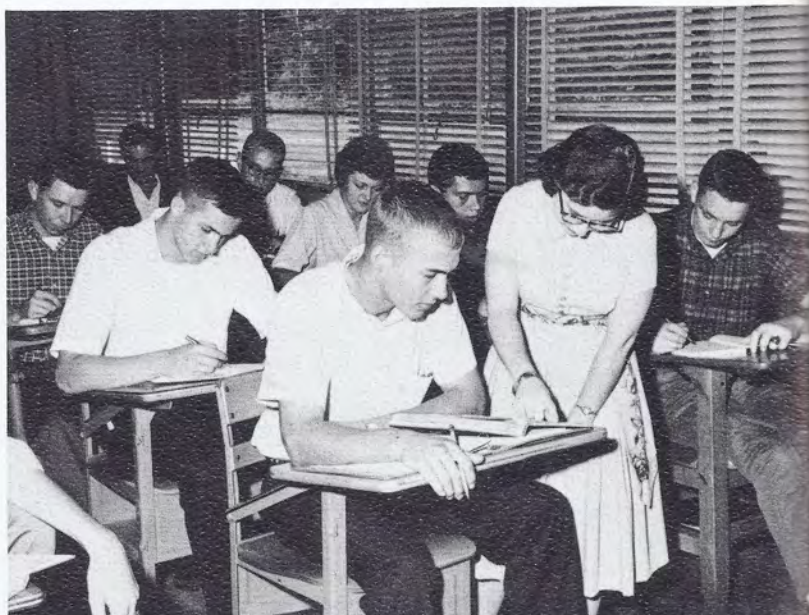

"I hate to see things done by halves. If it be right, do it boldly, if it be wrong, leave it undone."

Languages . . .

MISS JACKOLYN M. GLISSON
A.B., Guilford College
English, Social Studies

"Read the best books first, or you may not have a chance to read them at all."

"The heart of culture is the culture of the heart."

MRS. EDNA D. WILSON
B.S., Western Carolina College
English, Social Studies

Social Studies and Physical Education . . .

"Manhood, not scholarship, is the first aim of education."

MR. RICHARD KALEEL
B.S., Presbyterian College

MRS. SYLVIA W. PHILLIPS
B. S., Woman's College of the University of North Carolina
Home Economics

"Education is a painful, continual, and difficult work to be done by kindness, by watching, by warning, by precept, and by praise, but above all—by example."

Home Economics and Agriculture . . .

It is as plainly in our living shown, By slant and twist which way the wind hath blown.

MR. W. H. HURDLE
B. S., Mississippi State College
Agriculture

MRS. MARGUERITE S. TAYLOR
A.B.
Bowling Green College of Commerce
Commercial

"The only system of education worthy of the name system, much less education, is that one which literally and actually inculcates the eternal truth of Morality, not only by teaching, but by hour-to-hour example."

Business and Mathematics . . .

"But the temple the teacher builded
Shall endure while the ages roll;
For that beautiful, unseen temple
Was a child's immortal soul."

MRS. LAVIECE C. OLIVER
A.B., Meredith College
Mathematics

MR. L. M. HART
B. S., East Carolina College
Science

"The man who thinks, reads, studies, and meditates has intelligence cut on his features, stamped on his brow, gleaming in his eyes, and sooner or later the face tells the status or condition of the soul—a reflection of the divinity within man."

Science and Music

"Here is a gift that is divine I know
To give a child a dream"

MRS. W. H. HURDLE
Music

SENIORS

"Let Fate do her worst; there are relics of joy,
Bright dreams of the past, which she cannot destroy;
Which come in the nighttime of sorrow and care,
And bring back the features that joy used to wear.
Long, long be my heart with such memories filled."...

As we leave behind four years of high school and go forward, facing life, filled with new challenges, problems, and joys, each of us will take along memories, some happy, others sad, but each playing a role in the most rewarding years of our lives... those spent at North Duplin.

UNDERCLASSMEN

We are faced with this realization as our high school days pass quickly by.

"As life progresses, the going gets rougher, illusions fade; disappointments are tougher..."
"All through life we must keep choosing. Destiny is in 'yes' and 'no.' As we look back, it is to wonder what would have happened if we had gone the other way when the road forked."

And more than all else we come to realize, "What a man chooses, he is."

It is up to each of us to make the most of our days here at North Duplin.

"Face every task with a determination to conquer its difficulties and never to let them conquer you. No task is too small to be done well."

ATHLETICS

"The life of man is made up of action and endurance."

Many valuable lessons that are not provided in books are made available through athletics. Among the most valuable lessons provided in this phase of our school program are the qualities of team work and sportsmanship.

"Without haste and without rest,
Let each man wheel with steady sway,
And do his best."

ACTIVITIES

An important part of education is fitting ourselves to the accepted form of society. As we take time out of our studies to enjoy relaxed activity, we are subconsciously preparing ourselves for this role. Clubs, dances, and banquets give us the opportunity to widen our circle of friends and to know more and different kinds of people, as do such activities as plays and parliamentary teams strengthen our cultural aspects.

Without these, our high school days would not be well rounded.

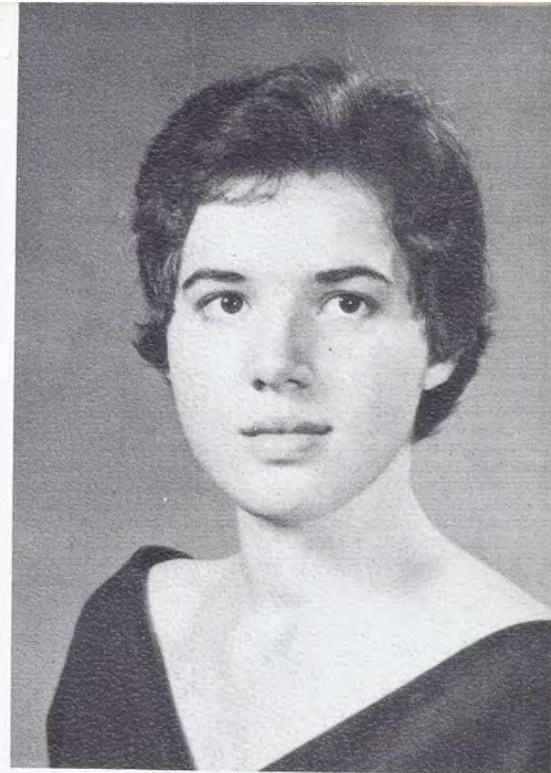

MRS. SHELTON B. TAYLOR

Someone once said:
"Remember. The value of time.
The success of perseverance.
The pleasure of working.
The dignity of simplicity.
The worth of character.
The power of kindness.
The influence of example.
The obligation of duty.
The wisdom of economy.
The virtue of patience.
The improvement of talent.
The joy of originating."

The Rebel

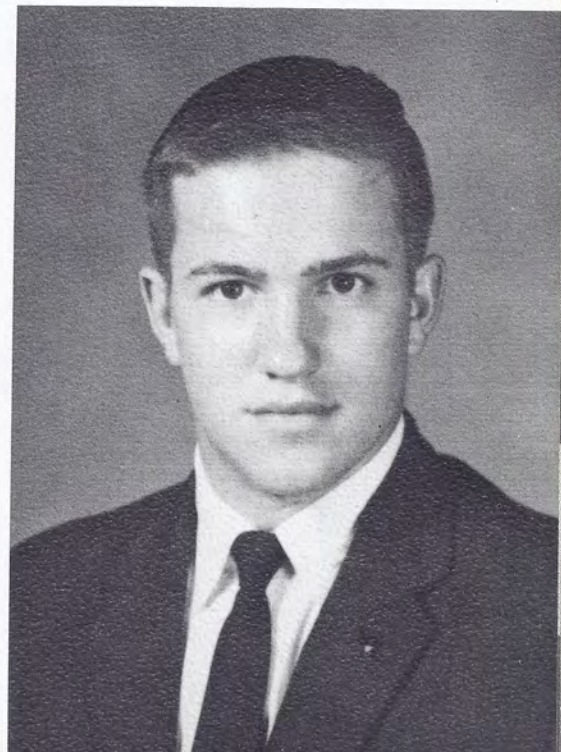

JANET PIPKIN
Editor-in-Chief

As we, the annual staff of 1961, have compiled this edition of THE REBEL, we have tried to keep these ideals in mind and have constantly been tried in our application of them.

Without the co-operation and ideas of every staff member, the help and moral support of an understanding advisor, and the financial aid of our advertisers, this publication would not have been possible.

Many hours of hard work were put into this book, and we believe in the old saying, "You get out of a thing what you put into it." Because we have put our best into it, we are proud to present our year-book. We sincerely hope that it will provide many hours of pleasure and bring back many happy memories in the years to come.

Our annual Junior-Senior Banquet is one of the most "looked-forward-to" events of the school year. Much planning and work was put into our 1959-60 banquet of which the theme was "Le Soir de Paris." It provided an evening of entertainment which we shall look back on with pleasure.

Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom

The dance following the banquet was a gala affair. Music, dancing, and delicious refreshments were enjoyed by all.

We are very proud of our production, a three-act comedy entitled "Grandma's Best Years." Not only the cast, but every class member worked hard to make it a success. We are especially indebted to our directors, without whom we could not have produced it.
